

HPCC Community Meeting
November 18, 2021

Convened at 7:00 pm by Stephanie Walsh

Zone 5 Update: Commander Vinansky

- 3 thefts since last time

HPCC Updates: Stephanie Walsh

- Vintage Food Drive - Thank you!
 - Collected 109 bags of trimmings and sufficient cash donations beyond what was required for the food to give Vintage a financial donation of $100
- Light-up Night - Dec 4, 5 - 7 pm
 - Sign-up to show off your sparkle and/or share self-serve refreshments with neighbors by emailing the HPCC today! HPCCPgh@gmail.com
 - Maps will be available that day at HPCCPgh.org and through the Highland Park Listserv, and that evening at the Bryant Street Parklet.
 - Be sure to check out the special Light-up Night offers being provided by our neighborhood businesses!
 - Saturday Dec 4, 10 am, visit the parklet and help set up lights!
- Children's Winter Coat & Toy Drive - until Dec 8th
 - This event is organized by the Bloomfield-Garfield Corp & Love Works Ministry for underprivileged children in Zone 5 communities.
 - Donations may be dropped off daily at 113 Pacific Ave from 9 am to 5 pm.
 - Any toys and school supplies should fit into drawstring bags which will be packed and distributed along with coats; dolls of color are especially welcome.
 - Sign a child up for a free coat here:
 - Winter Coat Drive registration:
<https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSfhboLzaxmMo6bJx-JZsIrrKskIJmAlwTx3nd6g1PG0-eD0SA/viewform>
- The City invites residents to complete an Opinion Survey on City services, what's good, what needs improvement in their neighborhoods: <https://tinyurl.com/OCHSlistens>.

PWSA Stormwater Plan & Fee

- Rebecca Zito, Senior Manager of Public Affairs, and James Stitt, Sustainability Manager
- See slides

Meeting adjourned at 8:20 pm.